

The Art Edit... Continued

73. ELEANOR MCKNIGHT divides her time between London and the Turks and Caicos Islands. In her work there are elements of land and ocean. She brings colour from the beautiful hues of the Caribbean and creates abstract and semi abstract land and seascapes reflecting mood and atmosphere. Visit emcknightart.com and follow @eleanormcknightart on Instagram.

74. FEDERICO PINTO SCHMID is a self-taught painter whose artwork can be found in private collections all over the world. Influenced by abstract expressionism and Italian Informalism, DiPinto paints instinctively, starting from chaotic scenarios, then working on the composition to obtain harmony and balance between shapes and colours. Explore his energetic compositions via www.dipinto.website and follow @dipinto_art on Instagram.

75. EMILY WOODS is a Cornwall based textile artist. Her inspiration comes from the flora and fauna of the Cornish landscape, using a combination of watercolours, digital fabric printing and free machine embroidery to produce a range of products. To find out more, visit www.emilywoodstextiles.co.uk or email em.woods95@live.com

76. JENNY OKUN is a London-based American artist, well known for her large-scale, limited edition, photographic abstractions and cubist interpretations. Pictured is "Tate Modern Triptych" London. Visit jennyokun.com or for sales email art@bridgetbrown.co.uk

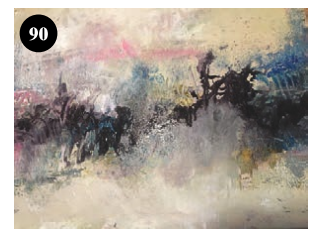

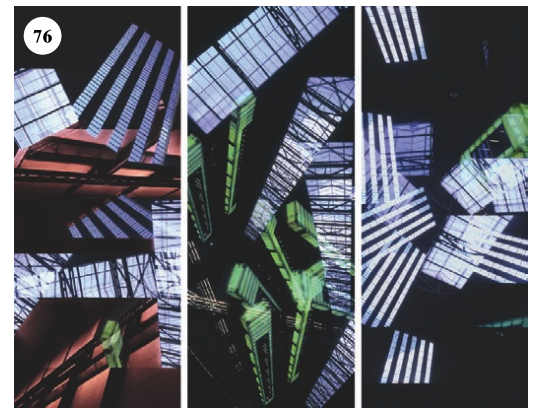

77. KATHY LEE is a self taught visual and abstract expressionist artist in the Chicagoland area. She loves using colour to represent energy and emotions. Kathy believes that surrounding herself with love, positivity, music and passion will help convey that into her art. Visit www.kathyleeabstract.com and follow kathy_lee_abstract on Instagram.

78. Self-taught acrylic painter JAYNE BATEMAN is 'Putting Heart into Art' with her collection of work inspired by the beauty of nature, an emotional connection to the effects of light on landscapes and wildlife. She uses cruelty-free art materials and infuses paintings with positivity and reiki healing. For more information, visit thehealingartist.co.uk or follow @artbythehealingartist on Instagram.

79. Finding himself to be an action painting fanatic, BAS BONGERS' work is often inspired by nature and space. Adding his own typical Babo-sauce, he creates vibrant, dynamic and colourful works. For Babo, seeing colours working together is like magic. It changes something ordinary, into something extraordinary right before your eyes. Visit www.babo-art.com and follow @82babo on Instagram.

80. ANGELA JOHNSON is an experienced artist, with a diploma from the London Art College. She is versatile and uses many mediums and subject matters. Angela uses strong colour tones to create a vivid impression. She draws from many inspirations, including southern Africa where she resided for two years. For more information, visit www.angelajohnsonartwork.co.uk or email info@angelajohnsonartwork.co.uk

81. KELLI WASSOM is an American artist, known for her unique vibrant colour palettes and storytelling. She uses colour and a variety of subjects to highlight the emotion and story expressed through each art piece. For more information, visit www.kelliwassom.com or follow @kelliwassomart on Instagram.

82. LIA BURKE LIBAIRE is an artist based in Charleston, South Carolina, who has worked on a broad range of commissions, large-scale public installations and bespoke stationery designs. Botanicals, astrological constellations and her signature 'evil eye' are common themes in her vibrant and often irreverent work. Visit www.liaburkelibaire.com for more information and follow @liaburkelibaire on Instagram.

83. DANNY JOHANANOFF is a Fine Art Photographer residing in New York. His work exhibits in NY, Miami, Rome, Milan and Tokyo. Johananoff images are often blurred and dreamy, depicting the culture and the pure beauty found out there. Visit www.danjohananoff.com email finart@danjohananoff.com and follow @johananoff on Instagram.

84. GABRIELLA TORRES is an American artist based in Iowa. Her abstracts are intuitive explorations of colour and movement inspired by nature and, always, the heart. She specializes in watercolour and incorporates found natural materials into her work. Find out more at gabibirdart.com or follow @gabibirdartist on Instagram.

85. MORGAN SMALLEY is an abstract visual artist who incorporates vibrant colours, dramatic lines and organic movement to portray a scene imaginable only in your most whimsical dreams. Morgan has created a wide variety of collections which were inspired by her profound connection with nature. Visit www.morgansmalley.com and follow @mksmalleyart on Instagram to discover more.

86. LU ZHANG is a Chinese born, self-taught artist based in Lyon, France. She paints diverse subjects such as southern Italian landscape, Chinese food, abstracted emotions and ideas, and dreamy metaphysical scenes. For Lu, paintings are wordless poems that flow from the heart. Depicted here is 'Listen to the Sound of Silence', oil on linen, 41 x 27 cms, 2020. Visit www.luzhang.art and follow @luzhang.art on Instagram to find out more.

87. LINDA STELLING's artistic approach revolves around the curvilinear form, she is fascinated by the evocative feel of shapes. Her use of colour helps to change the perception of the viewer, suggesting each abstract piece is a living organism. Light, colour and strong movement propels an uplifting creative surge that empowers the viewer. Visit www.lindastelling.com and follow @lindastellingart on Instagram to see more.

88. TIFFANY ALEXANDRIA is a contemporary American artist, based in San Antonio, Texas. Alexandria's bold use of colour and unconventional drawing techniques, with conceptual rigor, underpin the basis of her artwork. She experiments with a range of expressive modalities, exploring contemporary culture from the female viewpoint. Visit tiffanyalexandriaart.com or email tiffanyalexandria@gmail.com to find out more.

89. ELENA DOBROVOLSKAYA is New York based oil and pastel portraitist. She exhibited broadly in the US and Europe, and was awarded the "Artist of the Year 2019" prize in Italy. Now her art is featured in Contemporary Art Curator online magazine. Elena's paintings are vibrant, colourful, feminine, delicate, romantic and sexy, modern and classical at the same time. Visit www.eleнадobrovolkskaya.com or contact ladyvictoria2007@gmail.com to find out more.

90. JORDAN VIX is an abstract artist in Los Angeles, inspired by mental health and social justice. Vix's expression contemplates hope and resiliency through art. Her work has been displayed at Joshua Tree Art Gallery and at the annual C.R.E.A.T.E event in Los Angeles County. Visit her at jdunyasha.myportfolio.com and follow @jdunyasha23 on Instagram.